

Contents

Preface by Bruce McClelland	iv
Sources and Permissions	ix
Vampires, Dwarves, and Witches Among the Ontario Kashubs	1
Preface	3
Chapter I: Introduction	4
Chapter II: Kashubian Settlement in Ontario	7
Chapter III: Kashubian Demonology	12
Chapter IV: Kashubian Texts	39
Bibliography	53
Abstract/Résumé	55
Illustrations	(special insert following p. 56)
Vampires of the Slavs	57
Preface	59
Introduction	61
Jan Máchal (translation: F. Krupička)
Slavic Mythology	70
Dom Augustin Calmet (translation: M. Cooper)
Vampires of Hungary, Bohemia, Moravia, and Silesia	119
Jan L. Perkowski
The Vampire – A Study in Slavic Bi-Culturalism	173
Osborne A. Eaves
Modern Vampirism: Its Dangers, and How to Avoid Them	177
Jan L. Perkowski
A Recent Vampire Death	191

Alexandr N. Afanas'ev (translation: Jan L. Perkowski)
Poetic Views of the Slavs Regarding Nature	195
Kazimierz Moszyński (translation: Jan L. Perkowski)
Slavic Folk Culture	212
Jan L. Perkowski
Vampires, Dwarves, and Witches among the Ontario Kashubs	218
T. P. Vukanović
The Vampire.....	230
Ukrainian folktale (translations: R. Nisbet Bain)
The Vampire and St. Michael	260
Serbian folktale (translation: Csedomille Mijatovics)
The Three Brothers	268
Aleksej Tolstoj (translation: Kenneth Kemp)
The Family of the Vurdalak	273
Raymond L. Ditmars and Arthur M. Greenhall
The Vampire Bat	295
Acknowledgments	311
Selected Bibliography	313
The Darkling: A Treatise on Slavic Vampirism	317
Preface	318
Acknowledgements	319
Chapter I. Dracula the Vampire	321
Chapter II. Origins of the European Vampire	331
Chapter III. Vampire or Werewolf?	351
Chapter IV. Daemon Contamination	369
Chapter V. Slavic Testimony	390
Chapter VI. The English Literary Vampire	443
Chapter VII. The Final Analysis	458
Bibliography	470

Collected Articles	489
The Vampire: A Study in Slavic Bi-Culturalism	490
Bury Them Dead, Not Alive!	494
The Sun, the Slavs, and Vampires	496
On the Origin of the Kashubian Succuba	503
The Romanian Folkloric Vampire	508
Annointment of the Gods—A Continuing Ritual of Heliolatry	521
The Bulgarian Folkloric Vampire	527
More on the Bulgarian Folkloric Vampire	537
Cats, Bats, and Vampires	541
Daemon Contamination in Balkan Vampire Lore	548
The Vampire as Revenant	556
Slavic Soothsayers in Numinous Settings	559
The Vampires of Bulgaria and Macedonia: An Update	567
On the Legend of Demir Baba, the Iron Father	578
The End of Childhood is a Time of Magic: The Case of the Balkans	588
Demons in the Lore of Bulgaria’s Moslems	597
Insights into Slavic Folklore: The Musings of a Bicultural Slav	602
Charting a Course on Vampires	610